

Jeffrey and Elzbieta

Cathedral Ledges, North Conway, NH

September 6th, 2005 10:00 am

INTENTIONS: (Kim says and we respond)

Elzbieta, will you have Jeffrey as your husband, in times of good fortune as well as adversity, forsaking all others to be a kind and faithful wife? Do you promise to base your life with Jeffrey on love, caring, and understanding? Do you pledge to speak and to listen, to give and receive, and to be considerate of his wishes and desires?

Elzbieta: I will

Jeffrey, will you have Elzbieta as your wife, in times of good fortune as well as adversity, forsaking all others to be a kind and faithful husband? Do you promise to base your life with Elzbieta on love, caring, and understanding? Do you pledge to speak and to listen, to give and receive, and to be considerate of her wishes and desires?

Jeffrey: I will

VOWS:

Elzbieta, please repeat after me:

We have come together to make a marriage of our true friendship and love.
We shall share with each other in gladness,
strengthen each other in labor,
minister to each other in sorrow,
and be one with each other in the memories of life.
We shall make a home of the place where we dwell and there we shall gather wisdom from the seasons of life.

I, Elzbieta, take you Jeffrey, to be my husband.
I accept you as you are,
and ask that you be no one but yourself.
I promise to love you from this day forward
and for all the days of our lives.

Jeffrey, please repeat after me:

and for all the days of our lives.

EXCHANGE OF RINGS: (Kim says)

The rings that you are about to exchange mark the beginning of a long journey together. They are also a symbol of infinity, time without end. Let your rings be a reminder of your union, and of the love that you share. As a ring is unbroken, so will your love for each other be without end.

Kim says

Elzbieta, as you place the ring on Jeffrey's finger, please repeat after me:

The words I say to you now are words I say in friendship, respect, and love.
I see in you a strong, growing partner,
the person with whom I wish to share my life.
I offer you all the days before me,
no matter what may come our way.
I freely take you as my husband.
Take this ring as a symbol of my commitment.

BLESSING

Blessing of the Apaches (Kim Reads)

Now you will feel no rain, for each of you will be shelter for the other. Now you will feel no cold, for each of you will be warmth to the other. Now there will be no loneliness, for each of you will be companion to the other. Now you are two persons, but there is only one life before you. May beauty surround you both in the journey ahead and through all the years. May happiness be your companion and your days together be good and long upon the earth.

PRONOUNCEMENT: (Kim says)

Today I am privileged to share with you the moment you begin your new life together. In the years ahead, may you always apply tenderness and strength to the trials that may befall you. May your love be a shield from the unpredictability of life. May you remember to rejoice in good times and good fortune and may you always appreciate the life that you found with each other.

CLOSING: (Kim says)

And now, it gives me great pleasure to say:

BY THE POWER VESTED IN ME BY THE STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE, I NOW PRONOUNCE YOU HUSBAND AND WIFE. You may kiss the bride.
