Intentions:

Fred, do you take Ginger, to be your wedded wife? To have and to hold from this day forward, for richer or poorer, in sickness and health, to love and to cherish, for as long as you both shall live?

Fred: I do

Ginger, do you take Fred, to be your wedded husband? To have and to hold from this day forward, for richer or poorer, in sickness and health, to love and to cherish, for as long as you both shall live?

Ginger: I do

Pronouncement:

I may not be with you tomorrow as you say your vows, but I hope that you may remember to rejoice in good times and good fortune and that you may always appreciate the life that you found with each other.

Now, it gives me great pleasure to say: By the power vested in me by the State of New Hampshire, I now pronounce you husband and wife. You may kiss!
